The Evolution of Muslims' Belief

-bv RS

Group-A

A number of people in the world believe in ALL the religious and superstitious belief.

Group-B

This Group has abandoned all the superstitious belief using their intelligence and commonsense, however, they still believe in all the religious belief.

Group-C

This Group, using their intelligence and commonsense, has divided religious belief mainly into two categories such as belief based on Qur'an and belief based on Hadith. Moreover, they have further divided Hadith into two categories, namely authentic and un-authentic. They follow Qur'an and authentic Hadith only. They have abandoned all the superstitious belief as well as all the un-authentic Hadith. Majority of the people, probably, fall into this category.

Group-D

Group-D, using their intelligence and commonsense, has further divided authentic Hadith! They say that many corrupted Hadith have been wrongly put into the authentic Hadith, however, they never distinguish those corrupted Hadith! They just follow Qur'an and a part of the authentic Hadith. They have abandoned all the superstitious belief, all the un-authentic Hadith, and a part of the authentic Hadith as well.

Group-E

This Group thinks that all the Hadith including the so-called authentic ones are corrupted as they were compiled 200-300 years after Muhammad's death. It makes sense. Example: Qur'an only Muslims. Using their intelligence and commonsense, they have been able to abandon all the superstitious belief and all the authentic and un-authentic Hadith. They only follow Qur'an.

Group-F

Although this Group has abandoned all the superstitious belief and all the belief based on Qur'an and Hadith, they, however, believe in the existence of Allah. This Group claims to be Humanist, Agnostic, etc.

Super Group

Using their SUPER intelligence and commonsense, this Group has abandoned ALL the Belief Systems and the existence of Allah as well! They are called Atheist.
